All proceeds to benefit the Alzheimer's Association!

What is the Alzheimer's Association?

The Alzheimer's Association was founded in 1980 by a group of family caregivers and individuals interested in research. Jerome H. Stone was the founding president. Today, the Association reaches millions of people affected by Alzheimer's across the globe through our headquarters in Chicago, a public policy office in Washington, D.C., and a presence in communities across the country. They are the leading voluntary health organization in Alzheimer's care, support and research. Together, we can change the future of Alzheimer's.

Amanda & her grandmother, Norma, who passed away from ALZ in November 2017.

Neema & her mother, who is currently living with ALZ.
